Sweet taste of success for young entrepreneur

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

IF YOU have been past the city's CBX building this week you may have spotted 12-year-old Charlie Bowditch selling drinks and snacks from a suitcase.

Since last Wednesday the aspiring salesman from Oldbrook has proved popular with customers because of his polite manner, smart suit and selling technique.

Charlie, who wears a tie, polished shoes and has a Blackberry and a pen in his shirt pocket, told MK NEWS he came up with the idea because he wanted to make some money.

He borrowed some cash from his dad Daniel but hopes to pay it back and make a profit.

The young entrepreneur, who goes to Milton Keynes Academy, said: "I have so far made £36 and £14 of that is profit. I just hope to save it.

"I have some persuasive techniques and I am quite confident. I would like to be a salesman or go into financial business when I am older.

"My dad gave me an outlay and some change for a float but we agreed at the end I will pay it back, so it is just a loan."

Charlie, who notes down all the stock he sells, said he likes Dragon's Den and The Apprentice, but if anyone offered him some support he would 'drive a hard bargain'.

He buys his products in bulk and then works out the individual price based on what he needs to make a profit. He also picked his area wisely.

"One of the reasons I picked this spot was to catch people from offices walking past", he said.

"Water, Iron Bru and Coke have been the most popular so far and I even sold out on Thursday. After requests for Diet Coke I have gone and got some."

Charlie will be selling his items until he goes back to school in September and is hoping to make it bigger and better.

Charlie's nan, Sheila Price, 58, said: "Charlie is not your average 12-year-old and he is always thinking outside the box."

His mum Laurie-Lee Price, 32, added: "I think Charlie earned more than I did in a day on Thursday and I am just so proud of him.

"He is doing really well at school and this is doing wonders for his confidence. Alan Sugar used to sell vegetables at a market and look where it got him.

"Part of me thinks he wanted to earn some money, not just for himself, but because it was his little sister's fourth birthday.

"As a family we have been watching a few documentaries on Channel 5 about benefits and I think Charlie was influenced by them because he doesn't want to end up like the people in the programmes."

Family plagued by cancer from asbestos work

A FORMER factory worker has issued a stark warning after he became the third member of his family to be diagnosed with mesothelioma – cancer caused by asbestos.

Dave Libby, 68, from Milton Keynes, was diagnosed in May 2014 but had been having scans on his lungs since his brother-in-law died in 2010.

Mr Libby worked for Cape PLC in Watford for 11 years. His grandfather and brother-in-law also worked at the factory and both died from asbestos-related cancer.

Now Mr Libby is hoping to raise awareness about the dangers those who worked in the factory faced, in the hope anyone who worked there gets themselves tested by doctors.

He said: "I am already on borrowed time after being given 15 months to live and I am doing this for others to get checked out, whether they have worked at a factory like mine or a garage that handled asbestos brakes.

"Finding out might not save them but it could prolong their life."

Cape PLC has admitted full liability for causing the cancer to develop in some of its employees, but the full extent is not known.

Mr Libby added: "Please just go and get checked and don't ignore it. It is a ticking time bomb."

18-week driving test wait

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

DRIVING examiners may have to be drafted in from other areas of the country to deal with a backlog of people wanting to take their test.

There is an 18-week waiting list for people wanting to take their practical exam at Bletchley Test Centre and the Driver and Vehicle Standards Agency (DVSA) says it is doing what it can to recruit more examiners.

Derek Wormald, chairman of the Milton Keynes Approved Driving Instructors Association, said he felt sorry for learner drivers wanting to take their test.

"I feel a lot of sympathy for the people that might have to wait all that time to take their test," he said.

Phil Lloyd, DVSA's head of operations, added: "We are working to address this as quickly as possible – we are in the process of recruiting more examiners. In the meantime we are temporarily bringing in examiners from other areas whenever we can."

The news comes after a Freedom of Information request by this newspaper discovered a 21-year-old man had tried and failed his theory test 36 times at the Milton Keynes Theory Test Centre in Midsummer Boulevard.

A 19-year-old woman also managed to pass her theory test on the 31st attempt in 2010.

The highest number of attempts it took for someone to pass their practical test in Bletchley in the past decade was 18 – a 23-year-old man in 2007 and a 34-year-old in 2014.

New restaurant: These customers were the first in line at the opening of Five Guys at Xscape

Queue forms for first bite

THE wait is finally over after US burger chain Five Guys opened its new restaurant in Xscape on Monday.

The first five customers in the queue for the opening were treated to a free meal as the popular chain celebrated its expanding business.

The first three were friends and work colleagues, Kieran Hansell, Charles Bell and Eamon Cronin.

Kieran said: "I've never been to Five Guys before but I've heard really good things about it. I've heard they do lots of chips – the little fries are apparently enough for like two people."

His friend Charles was also excited. He said: "You can add bacon to any milkshake."

Charles was the first customer to bite into one of the burgers – verdict: "It's really good!"

Restaurant to be replaced by pub

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A NATIONAL pub chain has confirmed it has bought the building that was home to an independent, fine dining restaurant.

Robinsons – a popular dining destination in St John Street, Newport Pagnell – will be turned into a JD Wetherspoon pub, MK NEWS can reveal.

The company confirmed this week it has taken over the premises but has not said when it will be opening its new drinking hole.

A spokesman said: "I can confirm that Wetherspoon completed the purchase of Robinsons in May.

"As yet, there are no on site or opening dates for this site, which will be a Wetherspoon pub."

As this newspaper reported in May, Darren and Angela Robinson announced they were closing their restaurant after 16 years due to personal health reasons.

The Wetherspoon announcement has divided opinion among residents.

Some are worried it will ruin the town centre, while others are looking forward to the 'cheap drinks'.

Wetherspoon had put forward plans to open a pub in Queensway, Bletchley, in May, 2014, but they were rejected by councillors over concerns about anti-social behaviour.

Your say on new pub

Send comments on stories to letters@mk-news.co.uk

Simon Clawson: "I don't mind a Wetherspoon in the right location. This is not the right location. Newport Pagnell is a nice, traditional, functioning town. Wetherspoon, with cheap beer, can have a very destructive effect on those pubs that are already there. Not good news for Newport Pagnell."

Julian McDermott: "Get in, about time, decent beer and decent prices, welcome to Newport Pagnell."

Lesley Chattaway: "Cheap booze and cheap crap food. Just what every dying area needs."

Jamie Corbett: "If Robinsons is gone they might as well."

Dean Lewis: "Doubt it will happen, the local residents blocked a Tesco Express opening."

Mark Houston: "Please, no. Warm beer and uninterested staff."

Equipment is stolen from event company

AN EVENT company that carries out community work in the city has been burgled twice in the space of a few days.

And now the owners and police are appealing for any information about the estimated £2,000 worth of stock that was stolen from Real Music MK.

The company, based in Savoy Crescent, CMK, has supported hundreds of local and community events, but has been left without several essential pieces of electrical equipment.

Kirstie Duffy, the company's co-owner, said: "We had to go out and buy equipment to cover a wedding we were doing for free after the stuff was stolen. But it was either that or ruin someone's wedding day."

The first burglary happened sometime between August 16 and Friday. The second happened between Friday evening and Sunday morning.

Anyone with information is urged to call police on 101.

Stand up for citizens

ON MAY 7 residents and businesses of Milton Keynes voted in a landslide to support the CMK Business Neighbourhood Plan.

It was an overwhelming endorsement of a 'People's Plan' for CMK – a plan prepared, not by the council, but by a committed group of local residents and business leaders.

Now, less than four months later, the whole principle of the CMK plan, and indeed any neighbourhood plan in MK, is under threat. Despite the fact that the proposals submitted by intu Milton Keynes are contrary to several policies within the CMK Business Neighbourhood Plan, it has been recommended for approval by council officers at a development control committee on September 3. As with the furore over the Site Allocations Policy involving the possibility of building houses on open spaces earlier this year, it shows that council officers seem to be worryingly out of touch with residents.

Fortunately, where the sites were concerned, our elected representatives stood up for the wishes of local people and I hope that the same thing will happen with intu.

Neighbourhood plans are not anti-development. Indeed, far from it, it's just that we, the citizens who live here and use MK on a daily basis, have decided via the referendum what is the right type of development for CMK and what is not. It seems that we have far more faith in our plan than council officers.

It is now up to our elected representatives to once again stand up for local people.

Our views were ignored

HOW ironic to hear a councillor challenging the council to consult with residents on road schemes (MK NEWS, August 19).

There was a public consultation on a similar dangerous junction on the V3 between Furzton and Emerson Valley.

The public wanted a ban on right turns by a majority.

What are we getting? Roundabouts!

These will impede the flow of traffic on the grid road while doing nothing to help cars turning out.

So much for the results of public consultation – don't waste public money seeking our opinions when they are ignored. And don't be surprised at the lack of engagement from the public in the future.

Anne Edmonds
Sykes Croft, Emerson Valley

Your views on the MK 'accent'

Join in with the debate – facebook.com/OneMKNews

Natalie Tulip: "Yes of course we do. Everywhere has an accent. Those born here with a family who have generations here have a slight county accent. Those who moved here in the 70s have a slightly, dare I say, posher London accent with a country twang."
Adele Wasilewski: "Definitely a different sounding accent with a hint of east London. Also we tend to drop the T."
Gary Bottomley: "It's like a country London accent."
Emma Thomas: "As my other half would say we have a Miltonion accent."
Kelly Eagles: "I've been told we sound like farmers lol."

Jon Brett's City Life

His column written exclusively for MK NEWS

OH HOW the critics laughed as Milton Keynes was being built from the ground up.

Dismissed as a soulless city with concrete cows and no heart; a bland London overspill with only a shopping centre to boast about.

But with listed status being granted to another city centre building, those critics aren't laughing now.

Following in the footsteps of the listing of the centre:mk and the bus station in Elder Gate, Milton Keynes Library has now been recognised as being an architecturally important part of the Central Milton Keynes street scene.

With books rapidly becoming a thing of the past, it's difficult to imagine what the future holds for this cavernous building.

The reality is that all the information held at Milton Keynes Library could probably now be stored on a single laptop.

I can recall many an afternoon revising for exams and researching information in the reference section. Google wasn't even a word in those days and the only cutting edge technology was a photocopier the size of a car, which charged 20p a page!

At the turn of the video revolution, Milton Keynes Library was one of the first public libraries in the country to hire out VHS movies and, at the turn of the digital revolution, CDs. All of these innovations are now largely obsolete and confined to museums and car boot sales.

Hopefully the library will remain a focal point of the city centre for years to come and continue to be a service provided by Milton Keynes Council, preserved within the walls of this newly listed building.

Confident: Model Katie Jones wants to inspire other people to be confident about their size

‘I aim to be first fat supermodel’

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

TWENTY-TWO stone plus size model and blogger Katie Jones says she is happy with the way she looks and wants to inspire others to be confident in their own skin.

Describing herself as a ‘plus size activist’, the 26-year-old vlogger from Milton Keynes says she is not promoting obesity but self-confidence.

A size 24, Katie describes herself as ‘fat and sexy’ and hopes to become the UK’s first supersized supermodel.

She said: “I’m fat – I know. Let’s not beat around the bush. But the most important thing is that I’m happy in my own skin – and others should feel the same way.

“Life is too short for women to worry about their appearance – they should do what makes them happy. In my case – it’s being fat and proud.

Katie produces her own YouTube videos showing what life is like as a larger lady and offers fashion advice to others.

She was recently signed to agency Ugly Models and now hopes to make a living as a model.

She said: “My dream is to become the first supersized supermodel in the UK. There is only one supersize supermodel in the world and that is nowhere near enough.”

READERS BACK KATIE

Samantha Jane Coster: “Good luck to her. As long as she is happy, I wish I was that confident!”

Debbie Willson: “You can be any shape or size, it’s all down to your personality, that’s what defines you.”

Terry Hatter: “It does my head in when people go on about people who are big being a burden to the NHS. What about smokers and alcoholics? I think she’s cool for doing something that makes her happy so fair play to her.”

Kelly Suzanne Rees: “Good on her. If she is happy being the way she is then that’s great.”

Firm fined for ladder fall death

A ROAD transport company has been fined more than £230,000 for safety failings after a driver died from life-changing injuries when he fell off a ladder at a golf club.

Keith Brookes, 61, from Milton Keynes, fell from the unsecured ladder during an operation to unload a lorry at the Hertfordshire Golf and Country Club in Broxbourne on November 23, 2012.

The Health and Safety Executive (HSE) prosecuted Mr Brookes’ employer, David Watson Transport Ltd, based in Norfolk, at St Albans Crown Court on Friday for failing to properly safeguard workers from falls.

After a two-week trial, HSE Inspector Sandra Dias, said: “This fall was entirely preventable.

“There is absolutely no excuse for companies to neglect safety.”

Holidays stop Agora talks

A DISCUSSION on the Wolverton Agora proposals has been put on hold – despite promises from the developers it would take place next week.

Brickhill Properties MK Ltd has said it has not been able to look in more detail at the viability of the plans because people have been on holiday.

The plans to replace the Agora with 100 residential units and eight retail units were due to be discussed by MK Council’s development control committee next Thursday.

They are now set to be on the agenda for the committee’s next meeting on October 1.

On tour: Will Greenwood with the Webb Ellis Trophy on Thursday

Star's special delivery

ENGLAND World Cup star Will Greenwood accompanied the Webb Ellis Trophy he so famously won in 2003 on a tour around the city on Thursday and Friday.

Mr Greenwood escorted the trophy around places such as Daytona Karting in Rooskley, Bletchley Leisure Centre and Xscape to 'bang the drum' ahead of the tournament. It was part of a nationwide tour of the trophy.

He said: "It's about including families and young children and giving them access to the trophy.

"We're promoting the values of rugby and the incredible tournament that is coming.

"There will be three fantastic games at stadiummk in October and there will be so much to do in and around Milton Keynes at that time."

Travel and tourism set to benefit by £10m

THE Rugby World Cup will generate more than £10million for travel and tourism organisations in Milton Keynes, search engine GoEuro.co.uk has predicted.

As a result of the three games played in the city, organisations will earn £10,078,000 from incoming visitors.

Steven Gordon Wilson, chief executive of Destination MK, said: "Everyone is caught up in Rugby World Cup fever, but we mustn't forget that it's so much more than three world class games.

"The overall economic impact of the tournament coming to MK is forecast at £56million, with the visitor economy in particular benefiting to the tune of £10million.

"Over half of this is overnight accommodation, which is very reassuring as it shows that people are coming to spend time in the city and will be able to enjoy some of what MK has to offer."

City is 'ahead of the game'

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes is ahead of schedule compared to other cities in preparing for the arrival of the Rugby World Cup, according to one of the organisers.

Matt Cove, who runs Events Managed, which is the organisation preparing for the event in MK, says the city is now gearing up for the arrival of the tournament with a series of events.

stadiummk will host three matches on October 1 (France v Canada), October 3 (Samoa v Japan) and October 6 (Fiji v Uruguay) and a host of events will be taking place to celebrate.

"The preparation is going really well at the moment," said Mr Cove.

"From my point of view we are ahead of schedule compared to other cities and our partners elsewhere have said we are ahead of the curve."

The Stables and IF: Milton Keynes International Festival will host the Clash of Drums with parades at Lloyds Court on Friday, October 2 and Campbell Park on Saturday, October 3. Both events will finish at The Point.

The Festival of Rugby will take place at Campbell Park from October 1-11. Events include the 80s Lineout on Sunday, October 4, with tickets costing £39.

The Big Sports Quiz, which is a Question of Sport-style event, takes place the following day featuring players from MK Dons, Northampton Saints and Bedford Blues.

The Art of Rugby Film Festival, which will include a showing of Invictus, starring Morgan Freeman, and the documentary Murder Ball, will take place on Thursday, October 8.

Tickets for the events are available on Ticketmaster or via The Parks Trust website.

Worry over traffic issues

RESIDENTS have been expressing concerns over how traffic will be managed during the Rugby World Cup.

Marc Whelan, who lives on the Ashland estate, said he and his wife Janice were blighted by people ditching their cars for the Saracens v Northampton game in April. They also have the same problem when MK Dons have home matches.

"They just park absolutely anywhere and then don't care because they don't live in Ashland," Mr Whelan told a public meeting on Friday.

Another resident said he spent an hour-and-a-half trying to get out of his estate during the rugby.

Danny Mullins, who has been involved with organising the Rugby World Cup traffic at Milton Keynes Council, said designated parking will be created at The National Bowl, CMK, Tesco at Fenny Lock and Milton Keynes Theatre for people attending matches, with free shuttle buses taking spectators to games.

‘Overwhelmed’ by top honour

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS’ chairman will be granted the city’s highest award later this year.

Pete Winkelman will be the fourth individual to be given the Freedom of the Borough by Milton Keynes Council.

He follows in the footsteps of Dame Cleo Laine, Jim Marshall and The Right Honourable The Lord Campbell of Eskan, the former chairman of the Milton Keynes Development Corporation. Red Bull’s Formula One team was also given the honour last year.

Mr Winkelman will receive the honour at a special meeting at the Civic Offices on November 12.

It was Mr Winkelman’s music business background that brought him and his family to the recording studio at Great Linford Manor in the early 1990s but with the new century came a new ambition to deliver top flight football to Milton Keynes together with an international standard 30,000 all seater stadium, which he finished in 2014.

Freedom of the Borough: Pete Winkelman is to be given honour

Mr Winkelman said: “I am totally overwhelmed to be conferred with this honour.

“There is something very special in being recognised by your community and I will be forever grateful that the council has bestowed on me the Freedom of the Borough.

“Bringing football to Milton Keynes was about bringing opportunities for the community and I could only have done that in partnership with the many agencies, organisations and individuals who have supported this journey.

“The council has been outstanding in this respect and none of this can be possible without the support of our fans and the people of Milton Keynes that contribute so much.”

Readers have been congratulating Mr Winkelman on our Facebook page.

Sandra Goble said: “He is a truly inspirational man.”

Steve Bottomley added: “Richly deserved.”

Sites suggested for extra spaces

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

SIX sites have been identified as possible places to put multi-storey car parks in the city centre – in a bid to tackle the lack of available spaces.

And more than 5,600 spaces have been earmarked for the potential sites, with the majority of land being identified for tiered parking.

Milton Keynes Council is urgently looking at parking after MK NEWS launched its Fair Parking campaign in October, which called for more parking spaces for workers and residents at fairer prices.

Since our campaign was launched, a number of red premium spaces have been converted to purple standard spaces and now the council is putting out a transport and parking strategy for an eight-week consultation with residents.

The plan suggests multi-storey car parks could potentially be built at Xscape, in South Tenth Street at the former Wyevale Garden Centre site, next to residential homes in North Eleventh Street and two near to Station Square. These would complement the proposed multi-storey at John Lewis.

There are also a number of sites, mostly along North Row, which would provide more than 1,000 spaces through tiered parking.

Speaking about the strategy, Councillor Matt Clifton, the cabinet member responsible for parking, said: "We are still confident we can meet the target of 1,000 spaces this financial year."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Pods to be seen in footpath trial

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

PODS will be taking to the footpaths of Central Milton Keynes this autumn.

Milton Keynes Council has issued traffic orders on nine footpaths around CMK to warn residents about the trial, which will be evaluating how the pods manoeuvre around objects.

The authority has stressed that safety is paramount and the one or two pods being tested will be operated by a driver, who will be able to steer and stop the vehicle.

The pods will have lights and warning sounds and have a classification from the DVLA.

They will be operating at low speed under the watchful eye of testers.

Advisory signs will be also be placed along the routes to warn the public, who will not be able to travel in them yet.

A council spokesman said: "This represents a significant and welcomed milestone as MK continues to lead in the development of advanced transport systems.

Test: pods will be taking to footpaths in Central Milton Keynes

"The purpose of the demonstration is to evaluate the technology within the vehicles and also how the pods negotiate areas safely.

"The traffic orders are known as experimental orders and allow for amendments. They will be in place for 18 months."

Anyone wishing to object to the trial must write to the TRO Manager, Milton Keynes Council, Synergy Park, Bleak Hall, MK6 1LY by the end of February, 2016.

You could make a difference to a child or young person's life...

www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/fostering tel: 01908 253206

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who can offer a safe and loving home for a child/young person in care. We are especially seeking carers for teenagers. As a Milton Keynes Council foster carer you will be provided with a generous allowance plus support and training.

Our foster carers come from all walks of life and across a diverse community. They offer children and young people a nurturing, caring home environment where they can begin to thrive and reach their full potential.

It's a challenging role; one which will always ask for a great deal of input and support from you. However in providing a home to a child/young person who is unable to live with their family for a period of time you will be creating a wonderful experience for everyone involved.

Residents welcome ban on heavy lorries

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A BAN on noisy heavy goods vehicles from going down a residential street has been welcomed by homeowners and a councillor.

MK NEWS has previously reported on the problems in Countess Way, which is a continuation of the H7 Chaffron Way but runs into a residential part of the Eastern Expansion Area.

Complaints had originally been made about speeding vehicles on the 30mph road, but when speed humps were installed they ended up causing more problems as cars weaved between them.

HGVs also caused a racket when they went over them, but that should stop with the introduction of the ban on Monday.

Resident Albert Mpase, a 49-year-old taxi driver, said when the HGVs went over the speed humps it shook the walls and mirrors in his house.

He added: "Another good idea might be to put in speed cameras in the area but it's good news that they are stopping these big trucks."

Banned: HGVs are no longer allowed to use the H7 Chaffron Way

Fellow resident Camran Ali, 34, works from home three days a week. He said: "When I'm working upstairs you can really feel the walls move and vibrations – the worst times are during school pick up and drop offs."

The ban is 'long overdue' according to John Bint, a councillor responsible for the area.

He said: "It was very annoying for residents and with the amount of materials going to that area of Milton Keynes there have been very loud lorries going down that road from 7am every day."

Discussion will now turn to how the improve the road, with Cllr Bint admitting there needs to be a 'fundamental rethink' of how the street works.

He said: "The next step is to ask for a meeting with senior council officers to look at possibilities for improving the way the road works.

"It's too late to move the houses, so perhaps we can redesign the road so that it meanders through with some scenic features on either side.

"I don't know what to do with it, I wish they hadn't built it."

Care home 'would mean 50 new jobs'

BY PHILIP MCELENEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

PLANS have been put forward for a new care home in the city.

The scheme – submitted by Ideal Care Homes – proposes a three-storey, 66-bed care home on land west of Jersey Drive in Newton Leys.

Councillor Nigel Long, cabinet member for health, wellbeing and community services at Milton Keynes Council, has said he likes people to stay in their own home for as long as possible.

"As a general rule I prefer older and disabled people to stay in their own home for as long as possible.

"If [the potential new care home] is a good provider then a care home in Newton Leys might serve the south of the city quite well.

"However developing care homes is not our priority."

Andrew Long, LNT group development director, on behalf on the applicants, said: "While there is of course a desire to assist people to continue living independently in their own home, the move into residential care can provide a positive lifestyle choice for local people who may be frail, elderly or living with dementia."

He added: "As part of Milton Keynes' urban extension, our home will serve the new community, integrating with the proposed local centre containing shops and schools – creating at least 50 jobs in the local area."

Ideal Care Homes has a series of care homes – most recently in York, Barnsley, Liverpool and Nottingham.

It says it has built itself around the objective of providing 'great places to live at affordable rates'.

£19m is spent on agency staff

BY PHILIP MCELENEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes University Hospital spent more than £8million on nurses from agencies in the last year – enough to employ more than 270 extra NHS nurses.

A Freedom of Information request by MK NEWS revealed the hospital spent a total of more than £19million on agency staff between July 2014 and June 2015 – but it is not clear exactly how many staff this was spent on.

More than 270 nurses on £30,000 a year (the average salary for a nurse) could have been hired using the same money.

A hospital spokesman said: "We are working hard to improve recruitment of permanent staff and run recruitment open days for nurses, both here and internationally.

"Our next recruitment day is on September 22 at the hospital. We also work closely with local colleges and universities to encourage young people to consider a career in nursing."

According to a report by the Royal College of Nursing, the average NHS ward has 24 beds with 3.3 registered nurses. Milton Keynes University Hospital has 500 beds meaning it should have 69 nurses on its wards.

The hospital could have employed 272 NHS nurses on £30,000 a year if it had spent the £8,167,153 that was used on agency nurses.

The hospital also spent more than £7million on 'medical staffing', as well as £661,692 on admin and clerical staff.

Shrek

Face behind the mask: Reporter Jessica Duncan talks to Dean Chisnall

strides into office

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

MK NEWS was given an exclusive behind-the-scenes look at Shrek The Musical, which is currently showing at Milton Keynes Theatre.

It was a world of costumes and colour backstage, where the incredible Dragon – who wears a great shade of lipstick – was keeping a watchful eye.

Company manager Anthony Field showed us Princess Fiona's Tower, Lord Farquaad's horse and the bright outfits and wigs of the woodland creatures and leading characters.

There were green items literally everywhere.

Leads Dean Chisnall, who plays Shrek, and Bronte Barbe, who is the new Princess Fiona, also took time out from rehearsals to have a chat with MK NEWS.

See the interviews on our website – www.onemk.co.uk

Top table: Shrek helps staff edit MK NEWS and OneMK during his visit

THE FACTS

Five things we found out during our backstage tour:

1. There are 12 people from Milton Keynes who have volunteered to be 'dressers' in the show. They are busy throughout the performance helping the cast get changed.
2. The ensemble of around 30 people have more than 100 characters to play between them so they get changed a lot.
3. The tour has some big teams, especially for the make-up, costume and wigs departments.
4. The dragon has come especially from America and is made of special Carbon fibre. It takes six people to control her on stage.
5. There are also four child actors in the production who are from Milton Keynes. The understudy for Princes Fiona is also from the city.

Ogre calls for food stories

SHREK visited the MK NEWS' offices on Friday to help reporters edit OneMK and the paper.

The scary but kind ogre needed a six seater taxi to get here and he certainly put the reporters through their paces as they pitched their story ideas to him.

He requested a lot more stories about food and was not pleased when one reporter suggested writing an article about the villain Lord Farquaad.

City in top five of best places to life

BY PHILIP MCELENEY
editor@mk-news.co.uk

DESPITE once being described as 'bland, rigid, sterile and totally boring', Milton Keynes has been named one of the UK's top five places to make a living.

The quote – from Royal Town Planning Institute president Francis Tibbalds – has been proven wrong by research from the independent analytical website, TotallyMoney.com, which gave it top scores in a number of economic areas.

The city's jobs market is the second best in the UK, with average mortgage repayments and the cost of living also stacking up well against the other 64 towns and cities looked at in the study.

Milton Keynes saw the highest growth in jobs of any town or city in the UK between 2004 and 2013, even beating London. The median take-home pay per month in Milton Keynes was £1,931 while the average monthly mortgage repayment was £926.

"This is another survey that demonstrates that Milton Keynes is a fantastic place to live, work and study.
Cllr Matthew Clifton

Councillor Matthew Clifton, cabinet member for economic growth and inward investment at Milton Keynes Council, said: "This is yet another survey that demonstrates that Milton Keynes is a fantastic place to live, work and study.

"Clearly Milton Keynes is fantastic because of its economy – there are a lot of businesses setting up here, a lot of small enterprises. We are so well placed within the country – we're in a very strategic location to be economically successful.

"Milton Keynes Council will continue to ensure this success is the case."

Blackburn was named as the best place in the UK to make a living, followed by Derby, Cambridge, Sunderland and then Milton Keynes. At the other end of the scale, the worst place to make a living in the UK is Gloucester, followed by Rochdale, Blackpool, Newport and Burnley.

LUTON BOROUGH COUNCIL

Concerns: Building work has begun at Stony Fields and Stony Manor

'Homes must be affordable'

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS have called for Milton Keynes Council to make sure homes built as part of the city's Western Expansion Area (WEA) are affordable.

Work has already started on building properties on the Stony Manor and Stony Field developments along the V4 Watling Street.

When the WEA is completed it will be as big as Buckingham with 6,600 homes for 18,000 people.

The plans, developed by Milton Keynes Council and Community Action:MK, include four primary schools, one secondary school, sport and leisure facilities, multi-purpose community centres, a library, a health centre and large open spaces. Buildings will be a mixture of sustainable and energy efficient homes.

On our Facebook page residents have welcomed the plans but raised concerns about the amount of affordable housing.

The council has confirmed that the development will provide 1,980 affordable homes – the standard 30 per cent of developments.

Residents, groups and businesses can find out more about the WEA at an exhibition at the MK11 Kiln Farm Club on Thursday, October 8 between 3.30pm and 7.30pm.

Send comments on stories to letters @mk-news.co.uk

Marc Whelan: "Of course we need more houses, but they need to be affordable for the majority. Make them house people cheaply and stop building £400K plus homes. MKC needs to grant permission and they need to control what gets built, not the developers."

Jacqueline Battersby: "I understand the ones near Stony are going to be affordable housing but the ones near completion don't look it! They say they will have their own shops/schools and doctors but until they do Stony is going to be a nightmare."

Simon Pugh: "We just need to make sure infrastructure keeps up with growth."

Kelly Eagles: "Are they affordable? I had an email saying new homes starting from £300,000. That is not affordable."

Ray Loveridge: "We badly need more starter homes. If it is all £400k plus homes it's again very unfair on young couples?"

GCSE success

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

IT WAS another successful year for students who opened their GCSE results in Milton Keynes on Thursday.

The Radcliffe, Webber Independent and Denbigh schools were among those enjoying good results.

Cllr Norman Miles, lead member for children and lifelong learning at Milton Keynes Council, said: "I would like to congratulate all of those students who are celebrating.

"This year's GCSE results are a credit to the hard work and commitment that Milton Keynes' students, school staff and governing bodies put in all year round.

"We will continue to work with schools as much as we can to ensure that our young people receive a high quality education."

Find more on this online www.onemk.co.uk

Webber Independent

STUDENTS from The Webber Independent School celebrated their best ever set of GCSE results this year, with top grades significantly above the national average. The highest achieving GCSE student at the school was Lola de Gorter with 11 A* grades and one A grade. She said: "I'm so pleased with my results. I worked so hard – so it's great to see the hard work paid off in the end. "It means I can now go on to study my A-levels at Bedford Girls School in September. "It's also really encouraging to hear that my media exam is going to be an exemplar for other students."

5 REASONS WHY PENSION ANNUITIES ARE SERIOUSLY BAD NEWS FOR YOU

New pension changes were introduced on 6 April popularly known as Pension Freedom. These changes affect so called money purchase pensions.

Money purchase pensions are the ones where your money is invested in a pot and your returns are determined by a combination of how much you pay into them and how well they perform. Typically they are known as personal or stakeholder pensions or company money purchase pension schemes.

When a member of a money purchase pension scheme retires he or she has various retirement options such as buying an annuity (a guaranteed income for life) or leaving the money invested in the pot and taking an income from it known as Income Drawdown or even cashing in the whole amount, subject to taxation, under the new rules.

People who choose an annuity will receive a pension income which is on average 5.7% lower than it was last year because of a reduction in demand for such a pension. This is just one of the disadvantages of annuity purchase. Let me list just 5 major reasons why annuities can seriously damage your financial health.

Tony Byrne
Managing Director
Wealth And Tax Management

1. An annuity dies with you (or with your widow/er) meaning that 100% of it is lost on your widow/er's or your death.
2. Annuities lack flexibility. Choice of annuity type cannot be altered once chosen e.g. Widow's/ widower's pension, indexation, guaranteed period.
3. An annuity purchase is a one-off financial planning decision which cannot currently be reversed (but watch out for new pension changes proposed by the government).
4. An annuity cannot be inherited by your descendants.
5. You cannot currently sell or cash in an annuity.

Annuities have represented increasingly poor value for money for many years and have been a one-way ticket for insurance companies to keep your pension pot when you die and rob your heirs.

Are annuities bad for everyone.? Not at all. There are always individual circumstances where they are an appropriate choice for certain retirees but these circumstances are becoming increasingly rare.

As ever the key is to get professional advice.

GLW

Radcliffe

THIS year The Radcliffe School achieved a substantial improvement to students' results with 53 per cent achieving five A*-C grades, including English and maths. Sixteen-year-old Laura Synthes achieved the best results the school has ever seen with 11 A*s and one A. Laura said: "I'm really pleased with my results today. I'm going on to study chemistry, maths, physics and German at A-level. I may go on to study medicine at university, but I'm not sure yet. My sister went to Oxford University so I'm hoping to follow in her footsteps."

Denbigh

DENBIGH School celebrated an outstanding set of GCSE results, with a significant improvement on last year. Two top-performing students were Alana Cutland, 16, who scored a stunning 13 A*s and will be going on to study chemistry, biology, English and sociology at A-level, and Prince Moyo, also 16, who achieved six A*s, four As and a C. He will be studying chemistry, biology and maths at A-level as he tries to fulfil his dream of being a doctor.

Overwhelmed by support: From left, Mick Ridgway and David and Nichola Priest. Inset: Firefighters tackling the blaze in Fishermead that left families homeless

Help for fire victims

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

THE whole community has united to help three families affected by a large fire on a city estate.

The Fishermead Residents Association (FRA), which set up an appeal for furniture and clothing in bid to help the families, says it has been overwhelmed by the support it has received.

It has been inundated with donations, not just from Fishermead, but from areas across Milton Keynes, including Crownhill, Kingsmead and Lavendon.

FRA member Mick Ridgway said: "We have been overwhelmed by how people have come together. It is really nice to see there is still a community spirit in Milton Keynes."

As previously reported by MK NEWS, the families were left homeless after a fire started in an end-of-terrace house in Pencard Avenue.

Thanks to Campbell Park Town Council, Serco and Big Yellow Storage, FRA has been able to collect and store items, including mattresses, dining room tables, chairs, televisions and clothes.

The seven members of FRA have worked tirelessly to collect all the items.

Nichola Priest added: "We didn't expect the appeal to snowball like it has and it is really nice to see people in Fishermead and across Milton Keynes support people in need.

"Any items we do not give to these families we will be given to the Salvation Army."

FRA is looking for volunteers to help the seven members move the donated items.

What do you think to intu expansion?

A DECISION on the multi-million pound expansion plans for intu Milton Keynes is due to be made by planning chiefs at MK Council next Thursday. It is set to be the biggest test so far of the newly adopted CMK Business Neighbourhood Plan. Here we take a look at the views for and against the proposal.

AGAINST

Central Milton Keynes Town Council wants to keep the area an open public space and not develop it into more shops.

Chairman Dr Rebecca Kurth, pictured left, said: "The new CMK Business Neighbourhood Plan, which was voted for by residents in May, gives much needed clarity and confidence to local people, businesses and developers about the future of CMK.

"On this particular site, the plan is crystal clear – this is public open space, vital for public access and future public transport, and it should be retained for the strategic growth of MK. But intu wants to in-fill almost half of this space in blatant disregard of the plan. We are looking to MK Council to do the right thing."

FOR

General manager of intu, Shelley Peppard, pictured right, is asking people to share their comments of support with MK Council.

She said: "We've listened to feedback from our customers and want to create a shopping experience that offers a full day out.

"We want to bring the centre in line with contemporary shopping experiences by including a boutique cinema with at seat service, bigger shops and a more diverse catering offer from chains and independents. This will provide a better experience for visitors, enhance the evening economy and bring around 400 new jobs.

"We want MK to continue to be one of the first places that retailers choose after London. The other major city centres in the UK are improving and if we stand still we will fall behind."

Spice up your Bank Holiday Weekend at Chilli Festival

WHETHER you like it meek and mild or hot and spicy, Frosts have a sizzling Bank Holiday Weekend lined up for you.

Join Frosts Garden Centre in Woburn Sands for its sixth Chilli Festival, which promises to be the best yet.

With exhibitors from around the country, live bands, salsa dancing lessons and plenty of chilli plants to admire and buy, there will be something for everyone.

There will be more than 30 exhibitors selling a huge variety of chilli and non-chilli related products at the festival, along with recipes from some of the hottest chilli plants in the UK. But best of all, there will be a chilli eating competition (a semi-final on Saturday and Sunday followed by the final on Monday) with prizes for everyone who completes the challenge.

Or, if you fancy yourself as a chef, you can enter the chilli sauce-making competition, which will see amateur chefs creating the best homemade chilli sauce, chutney, or jam in Milton Keynes. The winner will scoop a hot £100 in Frosts vouchers and a shiny trophy.

The festival will be open from 9am-6pm on Saturday, 10.30am-4.30pm on Sunday and 9am-6pm on Bank Holiday Monday.

Entry is £3 per person (free to under 16s and Frosts Gardening Club members). Buy your tickets at frostsgroup.digitickets.co.uk

The Stables | Family Life | MK Theatre | Competition

MILTON Keynes-based tribute band The Strange Doors are coming to The Stables on Friday.

The music of The Doors continues to reach into souls in a way no other music can, whether it be the moving intrigue of Riders On The Storm, the expansive energy of L.A. Woman or the sheer exuberance of the out-and-out rock classic Light My Fire.

With their authentic instruments and sets crafted through years of experience, The Strange Doors invite audiences to immerse themselves in the vibe, to move to the hypnotic beat and to allow the sound to help them break on through to the other side.

The two-hour performance starts at 8pm and tickets cost £15. They are available from the box office on 01908 280800 and online at www.stables.org

familypicnic

MILTON Keynes Arts Centre and Tracing the Pathway are inviting families to join a shared picnic on Saturday.

From noon to 3pm, items grown as part of the centre's six-week Power Plant art exhibition will be shared.

Through playful experiments with food, music and horticulture, the party offers everyone an afternoon of activities to mark the occasion. Works created during Power Plant will also be exhibited.

The event at the centre in Great Linford is free to attend.

IF YOU are in need of a good, hearty laugh then get yourself down to Milton Keynes Theatre for Shrek The Musical because it really is a hoot.

I can't remember ever laughing so much during a performance at the theatre.

Gerard Carey, who played Lord Farquaad, was absolutely sensational. To sing, dance and act the musical on his knees and still produce the delivery that he did was outstanding. Without question it was one of the most memorable performances I have seen at a theatre.

There was a chorus of laughter from the younger members of the audience during the burping and farting jokes.

The acting and singing is solid but what will amaze you most is the make-up and costumes, which were some of the best I've ever seen.

How the dragon was brought to life was very interesting and I felt Ryan Reid's interpretation of Donkey was worthy of note – the physicality he brought to the role was excellent.

The props were also used in a very clever way.

Perhaps most importantly is that all of your favourite scenes from the film are incorporated into the musical and really draw you in to this wonderful production for all the family.

Scott Kirk

festivalkit

HUNDREDS of thousands of young campers descend on muddy fields in the summer to enjoy their favourite bands at a music festival.

One of the most popular of those festivals is Reading, which will be held in Richfield Avenue from August 28-30.

The festival has boasted some of the biggest names in music since its inception in 1961, and this year is no different, as revellers can expect electrifying performances from the likes of Mumford & Sons, Metallica and The Libertines.

At festivals there are a few essential items no weekend warrior should be without. With this in mind, Reading Festival sponsors Firestone is giving away a special festival survival kit worth £250 to one lucky winner, including an air mattress, a tent, a sleeping bag and a torch.

So when you head along to your next festival, you know you'll be well prepared.

To be in with the chance of winning yourself this festival survival kit, simply answer the following question:

When is the Reading Festival held in 2015?
A) September 14-16
B) September 21-23
C) August 28-30

To enter log onto www.onemk.co.uk/lifestyle/competitions Alternatively send your answer, name, address and daytime telephone number to MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 0DU by noon on Wednesday, September 2. The editor's decision is final

Tickets for the show on Sunday, for which doors open at 7.30pm, can be bought for £4 in advance from www.thecraufurdarms.com

AMY Converse, from Vets4Pets in Bletchley, gives some advice on a disease that could affect your dog

RECENTLY there has been a lot of awareness around lungworm in dogs.

This is a disease that is all over the UK and the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons has reported that one in five vets' surgeries have seen at least one case of lungworm.

As the name suggests, this disease is caused by a worm that causes problems in the lungs of dogs.

The parasite can cause breathing problems, including coughing and tiring easily. It can also cause the dog to feel very unwell, lose weight and have clotting problems. It can also be fatal.

This disease is transmitted by the snail and slug, which curious dogs like to eat out in the garden. A snail or slug could be swallowed accidentally (or on purpose!).

This disease, although very serious, is preventable. There are medications that can be given orally or topically, which prevent this terrible disease.

Speak to your vet about what is best for your dog.

MISSING CAT

Jim has been missing from Swinford Hollow, Little Billing since Thursday 9th July.
He is a pure black, neutered male and is microchipped.
He was wearing a collar and name tag with our telephone numbers on the back.
He is a much loved member of our family and we miss him very much.
He is a big, friendly boy and gets on with other cats and doesn't mind dogs.
Please, please keep and eye out for him.

Introducing The All-New Jaguar XF

Available to order now, the all-new XF will be priced from £32,300.00 in UK. This latest Jaguar XF brings an unrivalled blend of design, luxury, technology and efficiency to lead the business car segment, underpinned by class-leading driving dynamics and refinement and impressive total cost of ownership.

The dynamic, coupé-like design is formed around Jaguar's aluminium-intensive architecture and combines the outstanding proportions, elegant surfaces and perfect lines which define all Jaguar cars, with a longer wheelbase, more interior space and exceptionally low aerodynamic drag yet in a lower and shorter body than the car it replaces.

The cabin is a seamless blend of contemporary luxury materials and finishes, traditional Jaguar craftsmanship and state-of-the art technology, with features such as a reconfigurable 12.3-inch TFT instrument cluster, laser head-up display and the InControl Touch Pro premium infotainment system – the all-new XF is the most connected Jaguar ever.

The all-new XF retains its predecessor's core attributes, but uses Jaguar's aluminium-intensive architecture to enable weight savings of up to 190kg – making the 163PS diesel model 80kg lighter than the nearest competitor – plus an increase in torsional stiffness of up to 28 per cent. The architecture also delivers dramatic improvements in packaging and the proportions so essential to Jaguar design.

The all-new XF is 4,954mm long: at 2,960 the wheelbase is 51mm longer than before, the front overhang 66mm shorter. Though 7mm shorter and 3mm lower than the original XF, rear seat space is class-leading thanks to 15mm more legroom, 24mm more kneeroom and up to 27mm more headroom than before. Aerodynamics are also superior: the drag coefficient drops from 0.29 to just 0.26.

The light, stiff body is also fundamental to the all-new XF's superb vehicle dynamics. Adopting Electric Power Assisted Steering (EPAS) maintains Jaguar's leadership in steering feel but also reduces fuel consumption by up to two per cent and three per cent for diesel and petrol models respectively. EPAS also enables functions such as camber compensation and advanced driver assistance systems including lane-keep assist, driver condition monitoring and bay- and parallel park-assist.

Advanced passive damper technology delivers exceptional ride quality as standard through an extra valve which reduces damping forces at low speeds. For even better control the Adaptive Dynamics system monitors body movement 100 times a second and wheel movement 500 times a second to determine the optimum damper settings for the driving conditions.

Jaguar Configurable Dynamics technology, optional on all V6 models, provides the ultimate in control and enables the driver to individually tailor settings of the dampers, steering, engine and eight-speed automatic transmission.

All-Surface Progress Control, developed for low-speed driving in adverse conditions, automatically manages the brakes and the throttle to deliver the best possible traction, enabling the car to pull away smoothly and without drama: the driver only has to steer. ASPC operates between 3.6km/h and 30km/h, and the desired speed is set by the driver using the cruise control switches (Automatic transmission only).

Infotainment and connectivity is the most advanced Jaguar has ever offered. The all-new InControl Touch Pro system builds on the intuitive user interface of InControl Touch, and supports all the same features – including InControl Apps, InControl Remote and Wi-Fi hotspot – but offers a 10.2-inch touchscreen and Dual View technology which simultaneously allows the driver to see information such as navigation, while the front seat passenger watches TV or a DVD.

To minimise driver distraction the all-new XF offers a colour laser head-up display. Stereo camera technology enables autonomous emergency braking, lane departure warning and lane-keep assist systems. Adaptive Cruise Control with Queue Assist takes the stress out of motorway driving in stop-go traffic by tracking the vehicle in front, at a safe distance.

The traffic sign recognition system brings Jaguar's first application of an intelligent speed limiter. Once set, the system monitors speed limit signs, compares them with navigation data and, when a change in speed limit is posted, can regulate vehicle speed by either smoothly accelerating the car up to a higher limit or slowing it down to a lower limit.

The all-new XF is also the first Jaguar to offer adaptive full-LED headlights. Featuring two banks of LEDs and reflectors – one for dipped beam, the other for main beam – they generate light with a colour temperature closer to that of daylight than is achievable with Xenon lights, delivering better illumination. At the same time, energy consumption is reduced. So efficient are they that, unlike first-generation designs, cooling fans are not needed.

If the high-beam assist function is specified, the stereo camera will detect other vehicles in the distance, and the headlights will be dipped automatically as necessary to avoid dazzling other drivers.

The all-new XF range will consist of the XF Prestige, XF R-Sport, XF Portfolio and XF S. The all-new XF powertrain range will consist of: 163PS and 180PS 2.0-litre diesel manual and automatic; RWD 300PS 3.0 V6 diesel automatic; RWD 380PS 3.0-litre V6 petrol automatic.

BMW 1 Series Sports Hatch

STILL THE ONE?

BMW's 1 Series gets sleeker styling, a range of more economical engines including an all-wheel drive diesel and a refreshed interior. There's still the brilliant M135i to head up the range, but at the other end there's a super-economical three-cylinder 116d that can manage more than 83mpg.

As well as the usual quest to drive down emissions, BMW has also done its best to sneakily add a little more poke under the bonnet where possible. The 1 Series petrol-engined range start with the 1.5-litre three cylinder 118i with 136PS and the 1.6-litre 120i with 170PS. Then there's the 2.0-litre 218PS 125i, and at the top of the range is the ferocious little M135i, with a three-litre straight six that cranks out 326PS. Pedal this one hard and 62mph flashes by in just 4.9 seconds.

The biggest change has come in the diesel range. The 1.5-litre three-cylinder engine in the improved BMW 116d generates 116PS and 270Nm of torque, an increase of 10Nm compared to its predecessor. A new four-cylinder diesel engine is offered in three states of tune: the 118d generates 150PS, the 120d has 190PS, and the 125d, with its multi-stage turbocharging, cranks out 224PS, enabling this model to reach 62mph from rest in just 6.3 seconds. The majority of 1 Series models get a regulation six-speed manual gearbox but the all-wheel drive 120d xDrivel features as standard the eight-speed Steptronic transmission. The eight-speed Sport Automatic 'box is available as an option for the 125i, M135i, 120d and BMW 120d xDrive models. This transmission is standard on the BMW 125d. It features faster gearchanges, shift paddles on the steering wheel and a Launch Control function.

One consequence of running a transmission tunnel through what has been a rather compact hatch has been rather compromised accommodation. That hasn't really changed too much. The 1 Series is still a bit more cramped in the back than something like a Golf. Nevertheless, the cabin is a good deal better looking than most rivals, with a revision to the dashboard minor controls. Both the air vents and the controls for the radio and the automatic air conditioning now feature chrome surrounds, while the radio and automatic air conditioning keypads are now set against high-gloss black panelling. There's also a standard freestanding, 6.5-inch Control Display. Choose the optional Professional Navigation system and a bigger 8.8-inch display is fitted. All 1 Series models are optionally available with a 40:20:40 split rear seat backrest: folding one or more of the sections allows boot capacity to be increased in stages from 360 to 1,200-litres.

The exterior styling is a bit neater, especially at the front. For the first time, full LED headlamps with low and main beam have been added to the options list, with Adaptive LED headlamps a further option. These follow the path of the road ahead, and also adapt their beam according to the type of road and conditions at any given moment. At the rear, revised tail lamps with a familiar BMW 'L' shape design also adopt LED tech.

Slowly but surely, BMW are excising each and every flaw in the 1 Series' makeup. When the car was originally launched in first generation form, it had plenty of flaws. It wasn't good looking, interior packaging was awful, the cabin quality wasn't all that it could have been and it wasn't actually that exciting to drive. The second generation version corrected many of these faults and this improved version finesses the package still further. While it's still not the most elegant looking hatch on the market, it's no longer conspicuously weird-looking. You could even call the latest car handsome, which would be a first for a 1 Series hatch.

Where this generation scores is in building in so much value for the customer. The cabin looks and feels so much more aligned to more expensive BMW models and the engine range delivers so much more choice. One thing that hasn't changed is that the Munich maker continues to offer a balance between performance and economy that almost seems to defy the basic laws of thermodynamics. Expect this one to sell in serious numbers.

New Diesel Engine For Jeep Cherokee

Changes to the popular Cherokee range have just been announced by Jeep, with details of a powerful new engine, offering an augmented range with better fuel economy, greater torque and improved standard content. The current two-litre diesel 140 hp manual versions have been joined by a modern 2.2-litre MultiJet engine, available with 185 hp and 200 hp outputs, and offering a significantly wider spread of torque from low rpm, greater power, improved performance and better fuel economy than the out-going two-litre 170 hp automatic engine.

The new 2.2 engine is already Euro 6 compliant. Available only with Jeep's segment-first nine-speed automatic gearbox, and matched to the Active-Drive four-wheel-drive systems, all new Cherokee 2.2 versions are packed with equipment. The new 2.2 MultiJet II engine, which places Jeep Cherokee towards the top of its class for performance, refinement and true efficiency, can now be ordered in the UK. Two power variants are available: 200 hp and 185 hp.

New D-MAX Special Edition Hits The Market

Having announced the new special edition D-Max Fury just last week, Isuzu UK has ensured it storms onto the market with the offer of highly competitive finance. The stunning Fury will be available on contract hire from just £215 + VAT per month when it goes on sale in September. Terms and conditions apply. Conceived specifically for the modern, yet budget-conscious buyer, the Fury offers a unique Magma Red metallic paint finish, bold 17-inch, five-spoke grey alloy wheels, dark grey metallic finish to the front grille – complete with a fiery red Isuzu logo at its centre – and Cosmic Black door and tailgate handles. Gun metal grey heavy-duty side steps complete the exterior look. Buyers will benefit from more than just the purse-strings-friendly finance offer; Isuzu's refined diesel engine returns a highly impressive fuel economy of 38.7 mpg (combined cycle), helping to keep running costs low. Inside, Fury features unique red stitching to key contact points such as the steering wheel and gear knob and dedicated Fury-emblazoned carpet mats. Customers also have the option to upgrade the interior seat upholstery to Limited Edition Black and Red Fury leather.

Pits stop: Daniil Kvyat of Russia and Infiniti Red Bull Racing during the Formula One Grand Prix of Belgium

Super finish by Kvyat but Ricciardo forced to retire

RED Bull's Daniil Kvyat finished with a flourish by making up two places at the end of the race to come home fourth in the Belgian Grand Prix.

But it was a disappointing day for Daniel Ricciardo, who was forced into an early finish after his car had troubles on lap 21.

The Russian driver started 12th on the grid so it was an impressive drive by the 21-year-old, who has now leapfrogged Australian Ricciardo in the standings.

Ricciardo's car troubles will be infuriating for Red Bull, who are aiming to climb up the constructor's championship rankings.

The driver suspected that it was an electrical problem as all of the power in his car switched off and it was a shame for him given he was running in third for a lot of the race.

But the day was all about Kvyat from a Red Bull perspective and the Russian enjoyed the race.

"It was a very interesting race and really good fun today," said Kvyat.

"I had a lot of overtaking opportunities and the car performed well.

"The strategy from the team to keep me out during the virtual safety car was good and we were able to have a strong last stint.

"The team did a good job and we scored some solid points – we should be happy with the performance and we can continue this form over the next few races."

Ricciardo said: "It's disappointing not to finish, we are not sure what the issue is but are investigating.

"I lost power going into the chicane, everything switched off.

"It looks like it's electrical but we'll see what the investigation brings."

Team principal Christian Horner said it had been a 'reasonable' weekend for the team.

"Daniil produced some strong overtaking manoeuvres and the strategy worked very well.

"It's a shame for Daniel; he had a great start to move up to third. He was running a similar strategy to Dany and I'm sure he would have been challenging for the podium.

"It was a lost opportunity but overall a reasonable weekend for the team."

North Crawley are champions

NORTH Crawley have won the Four Counties League with a game to spare after they comfortably dispatched Buckland and Aston Clinton by nine wickets.

Nearest rivals Milton Keynes slipped up after losing to Biddenham by four wickets.

New City (Milton Keynes) beat Milton Keynes City by 16 runs. Manjit Singh scored 49 and, in at number 10, Daniel Katechia scored 46 to give New City victory, although Saqlain Siddiq's 57 gave Milton Keynes City a decent effort.

New Bradwell lost by 185 runs to Thurleigh.

Great Brickhill's Cherwell League hopes were all but dashed as they were defeated by leaders Thame Town, who were 227-9 in the first innings. Great Brickhill's Mark Nelson scored 32 as they were bowled out for 168 in reply.

Wolverton Town moved down to bottom of the table after they drew with Oxford Seconds.

Stony Stratford's Northamptonshire Cricket League survival hopes were given a huge boost as they beat Geddington. Praveen Chandran's 54 and 50 from Wesley Fernando helped Stony win, as did four wickets from Kamran Anwar.

DONS COLUMN

'Get rid of your apple corks'

MK DONS' kit man Tony Hawkins brings his Tales of the Kit Room exclusively to MK NEWS

WELCOME back for the second instalment of Tales of the Kit Room. Since my column last week, I've been asked many times: "What's it like being Kit Man?"

It's a particularly good question considering I was a fan not so long ago, hardly missing a game (two in four seasons I think) before taking on the job I am writing about now.

it is without doubt the hardest job I have ever done. The hours are ridiculous and not quite the glamorous life some think it might be. However, the reward is to watch a game of football, or in the world of the Kit Man, around 70 per cent of the game as there are still things that need to be done.

Every player is different and some are happy with just a shirt, shorts and socks, others have a variety of items of kit and like to have four or five pairs of boots for a game.

I am fortunate to have an excellent matchday assistant in Pete (AKA Albie due to his striking resemblance to former Dons hero, Aaron Wilbraham) and he has been kind enough to supply me with quote of the week.

As we were setting off for Reading he was bemoaning the untidy state of the cabin of the kit van. "I'm sick of you leaving your corks in the van" he complained to Tom Bromley, who travels with us to away games. "Corks?" Tom and I said in unison. "Yeh, you're always leaving your apple corks in the van."

SPORTSSHORTS

NON-LEAGUE FOOTBALL

NEWPORT Pagnell Town beat Rothwell Corinthians 2-0 thanks to goals from Sam O'Neill and Fazel Koriya in the United Counties Premier League while in Division One, Olney Town were thumped 7-0 by Peterborough Sports, who have 17 goals from their first three games.

New Bradwell St Peter lost 5-2 to Wodson Park in the Spartan South Midlands League Division One, while in Division Two, Clean Slate beat Grendon Rangers 3-1, Stony Stratford Town lost 4-3 to Hale Leys United and Old Bradwell United defeated Musley United 3-1. Wolverton Town drew 3-3 with Pitstone and Ivinghoe.

TENNIS

GREAT Brickhill's Alexa Wilson insists she will never forget her outing at the All England Club after starring in front of former British No.1 Tim Henman as part of the HSBC Road to Wimbledon National 14 & Under Challenge Finals.

The 12-year-old Bedford Girls' School pupil booked herself a spot at SW19 by triumphing in the county finals and after qualifying from her group, she made it to the second round at the iconic venue last week before losing to fifth seed Cheri Darley 6-4, 7-5.

Wilson wasn't the only local presence at Wimbledon as Milton Keynes' Aidan Varela competed in the boy's county finals but eventually went down in the second round of the consolation ladder 2-6, 6-1, 8-10.

And, despite failing to follow in 2013 Wimbledon Champion Andy Murray's footsteps by lifting silverware at SW19, Wilson admitted her outing at the All England Club was certainly the highlight of her summer.

"I was quite happy with how I played in general because I came here last year and I wanted to get on a roll again," she explained.

"I won all my group matches last year and then got knocked out on a tiebreak in the first round of the knockout stage, so I just wanted to enjoy it this time round, which I did."

The HSBC Road to Wimbledon National 14 & Under Challenge is the UK's largest national junior grass court tournament and forms part of HSBC's investment in the stars of the future.

TABLE RUGBY

THE World Table Rugby Association is rallying the public to host their own table rugby tournaments to raise money for the UK Stem Cell Foundation.

Each time a Table Rugby tournament manages to raise £50 or more for the UKSCF and the winner can be nominated to play in the Table Rugby World Championships on November 1 - the day after the Rugby World Cup final.

Go to www.tablerugby.co.uk to download a PDF fundraising form and people wishing to get involved have up until October 18 to do so.

SWIMMING

NEWPORT Pagnell Swimming Club's Erin Saunders picked up the club's first ever medal with a bronze at the ASA National Swimming Championships in Sheffield in the 16 and 17 year olds women's 50m breaststroke.

She picked up a huge personal best in the process.

ATHLETICS

FIVE athletes from Milton Keynes will chase high profile success at the upcoming Sainsbury's 2015 School Games from September 3 to 6 in Manchester, when they compete in this prestigious multi-sport event for school-age athletes.

The five athletes from Milton Keynes are Jamil Hassan, Becca Herring, Ebony Carr, Lauren Murphy and Max Murphy.

Dons have the extra factor in Capital victory

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS came from behind to beat Cardiff City 2-1 in extra time during a mammoth encounter at stadiummk last night.

City were just about the better team in the first half, which was devoid of chances as goalkeeper Cody Cropper made a couple of smart saves and Lee Hodson cleared off the line.

The Welsh side took the lead in the 53rd minute when Alex Revell diverted Stuart O'Keefe's cross home, but Dons equalised when Carl Baker smashed the ball home after Simon Moore parried Rob Hall's shot from debutante Josh Murphy's cross.

That took the game into extra time and in the 108th minute, Murphy rifled the ball home to give Dons a 2-1 win.

To see the draw for the third round of the Capital One Cup go to onemk.co.uk.

The result followed Dons' very creditable 0-0 draw with Reading on Saturday as Simon Church, who began his career at the Madejski Stadium, hit the post. It was another clean sheet for Dons and the draw put them fourth in the Championship on seven points.

Dons entertain Birmingham City at stadiummk on Saturday, which means former central midfielder Stephen Gleeson will return to the club for the first time since he joined the St Andrews outfit at the beginning of last season.

In transfer news, centre back Tom Flanagan joined Burton Albion from Dons yesterday, while Norwich City striker Murphy has joined on a season-long loan deal, as has Diego Poyet from West Ham United.

Magic: Greg Rutherford celebrates his win — Picture by Martin Rickett / PA Wire/Press Association Images

Rutherford makes historic jump

GREG Rutherford became the first British long jumper in history to simultaneously hold the World, European, Commonwealth and Olympic titles after he delivered under pressure once again in Beijing yesterday.

Rutherford produced his second biggest ever jump of 8.41m to take victory at the Bird's Nest Stadium in Beijing and complete the grand slam.

The Woburn Sands jumper was given an enormous boost when favourite Jeff Henderson from America failed to reach the top eight after three jumps, dropping him out the running.

That cleared the way for Rutherford, who produced the majestic leap to add another gold medal to his ever-growing collection.

"I'm absolutely over the moon and it's unbelievable," Rutherford told BBC Sport with tears in his eyes.

"To jump a season's best here and it be the longest I've ever jumped in a major final – I've done it.

"I can't even explain to you that it has been really tough this year and I'm over the moon to come here and do that."

Rutherford has been accused of being a 'lucky' winner in the past, but he believes that he has silenced those critics with his jump in China.

"I'm hoping 8.41m is acceptable for people this time," he said.

"Maybe I'm not too bad a long jumper."

Rutherford now joins an elite group of five athletes, including himself, who have held all four major championships at the same time.

The others on the illustrious list are 400m hurdler Sally Gunnell, 100m sprinter Linford Christie, decathlete Daley Thompson and triple jumper Jonathan Edwards.
